Colleen.

‘CATCH UP’ WITH THE SAINT DISTRICT!

The LCA SA/NT District will be holding a one-day Synodical meeting on Saturday May 25th at The Ark, Salisbury Lutheran Church.
This day will include presentation of the financial reports for the District,
updates on the District Office
restructure approved at the 2018
Synod meeting and conversations about mission and ministry opportunities in our District in the future.
While we anticipate having our delegates present, the meeting is open to all members of our congregation. Put this in your diary!
Registrations opening soon.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITY

The next meeting of the Grow Cluster will be held at Langmeil all day on Saturday April 6.
Is there a Home/Small Group which

MALE SEEKING ACCOMMODATION

A Lutheran first year engineering student at Adelaide Uni is seeking accommodation either by sharing with someone who has a flat, or boarding with a family. Tom has a Christian friend studying space science who could share a flat with him if anyone has two bedrooms to let. Know of any possibilities? Contact tom.krahling@gmail.com, mob. 0472 742 059, or libby.krahling@gmail.com.

"WALK MY WAY"

How far would you go so a refugee child can go to school? You're invited to Walk My Way on Sat 13 April, 26 km through the Adelaide Hills, Hahndorf to Beaumont. Start with a German Farmhouse breakfast (provided!) and finish 5-7 hours later, again with food! Shorter walks are also available. For those who find the trail too challenging there will be an historical walk around Hahndorf, led by from Hahndorf Walking Tours. Two walks, with 20-25 people in each. Start 10am from St Michael's and finish at St Paul's Lutheran Churches, or in the reverse order, starting at 11.30am at St Paul's. All details, and registration at www.walkmyway.org.au
