BACK TO CHURCH!

Please note the following will apply (until something changes again!):

- If you like to use a Bible during worship please bring your own.
- Please bring your own activities for children - pencils, paper or other material
- There will be no offering received during the service - retiring offerings only.
- The capacity of the church for the time being is 77 people. The 1.5 metre social distancing rule applies at all times, although families may sit together. Extra people will be seated in the fellowship area.
- Please refrain from hand shaking and hugging.
- No food and drink allowed - hence no morning tea (at least for this week)
- Hygiene is of the utmost importance. Hand washing along with hand sanitising, are musts. Please do not come to church if you are displaying any of the Covid symptoms.
- We will resume Holy Communion in August, without the common cup; individual cups only will be used.

HELLO FELLOW LANGMEILIANS!

I would like to shout out a "BIG THANK YOU" for your prompt responses in completing your DHS Screening (Working with Children) checks. It has been a stellar effort by all of you. Over the past 8 weeks we have had over 70 checks completed! There are still a number to go, but we are nearly there. You have all made my job easier. Thanks!

If you have been asked to, but have not completed a form, then please contact me ASAP and I can send you the relevant forms for submission. Mobile: 0458 065 422 - justjo76@hotmail.com. Jo Herrmann

PASTOR ON HOLIDAYS

Note that Pastor Julian will be taking a week of holidays from Monday July 13 until Sunday July 19 inclusive. Pastor Dave Preuss will be leading worship next Sunday.

HOLY COMMUNION

Pastor Julian is happy to come and share the Sacrament of Holy Communion with home groups or families. Individual cups will be provided. Please contact the church office, or Pastor directly.

Please bear in mind that we need to make sure social distancing and a density of 1 person per 2 square metres are maintained.

Call Colleen at the church office, or Phil Hiscock.
Donations, please.

LCC EMERGENCY RELIEF

In July Langmeil's special items are pasta, roll-on deodorant, savoury biscuits. Drop off at Lutheran Com. Care, 26 Second street Nuriootpa. Please ring the doorbell and place donated items on the doorstep, from where they will be collected.

STORY OF THE WEEK:

"PARENTING - FIND THE FUN"

When I first saw my new baby girl, I was in love. But less than two years later, after I'd retrieved her from climbing to the top shelf of the pantry and cleaned up the 400th mess for the morning, I found myself in a fed-up heap on the floor.

'GOD! I CAN'T DO THIS ANYMORE!'

What happened between the moment I fell in love with my child and the moment I found myself on the floor, exhausted, depressed and defeated?

Life and motherhood is what happened. I'd given everything I had, and still, being a mother seemed to require more.

As I lay there at the lowest place I'd ever been, a verse came wafting into my consciousness. 'Be still and know that I am God'. In my heart, it was translated as 'You've been relying on yourself. You have been fighting so hard to stay in control. No wonder you're exhausted. Why don't you let me take over?'

God showed me how to rely on his strength – and not my own. On that first day, on the radio, in a book and in the words of a friend, I heard: 'God is faithful'.

And my eyes opened up to 'angels' with skin on. I opened up to the wisdom of others only too willing to offer loving, helpful advice and care. They taught us about grace: that our kids aren't perfect and neither are we – but God loves us anyway.

Now, years later, a little verse still wafts back into my consciousness, 'Be still and know that I am God'. And I'm reminded that God is and always will be ... faithful.
